ELEVEN BODIES ARE RECOVERED

Georgia Negro Victims Dug Their Own Graves

TWO ARE HELD

Letter Confessed Actual Murders—Farmer Had Hands Killed For Fear of Peonage Inquiry.

Monticello, Ga., March 28.—Two more bodies of negroes were recovered from the Alcovy river here yesterday, making a total of 11 bodies found since the authorities began an investigation of charges of peonage and murder against John Williams, a Jasper county farmer. Like the first three found a number of days ago, the bodies recovered today were chained together and weighted down with sacks of stones and iron. Five bodies were found Saturday, buried on the Williams plantation.

According to a confession made to Department of Justice agents by Clyde Manning, a negro employed by Williams, the 11 negroes were slain and their bodies made away with in order to prevent them from testifying against Williams in the peonage charges. Manning, it was said confessed he killed five of them with an axe at Williams' order. The bodies were recovered Saturday after he had pointed out the place of burial.

The coroner's jury investigating the death found that in two cases the negroes were compelled to dig their own graves. Williams and Manning both are being held in jail here under close guard.

At the inquest held today over eight of the bodies a verdict was returned declaring the negroes came to their death at the hands of Manning and naming Williams as an accessory.

Solicitor Campbell, of Newton county, yesterday requested Governor Dorsey to appoint Attorney-General Denney to take charge of the investigations in Newton and Jasper counties It was also announced by Judge Parks of the Ocmulgee circuit, that he was awaiting the Governor's orders to call a special term of the Jasper county Superior Court.

The coroner's jury conducted the inquest by numbers. The first inquest was over John Williams, same name as the plantation owner, whose grave, it is alleged, was dug by himself. The jury was informed that the negro was sent to a pasture in a ravine to dig a post hole. After digging the hole Manning's confession is said to show that he struck Williams over the head with an ax, pushed the body into the hole and covered it up.

Johnny Green was No. 2; he was sent to the same pasture to bring cows back to the stable. Manning is said to have confessed that he killed Green in the same way, but had to dig the grave.

Willie Givens was referred to as No. 3. He was said to have been killed on his way to a country store, in the same ravine, but Charley Chisholm was named as the negro who killed Givens.

Fletcher Smith, body No. 4, was sent to dig a well, and when he had dug deep enough to receive his body, Manning's confession, as repeated to the jury, showed he killed him with an ax and buried him in the hole.

In case No. 5, known as "Big John," Manning was held responsible.

In the cases of Nos. 7 and 8, "Little Bit" and John Brown, the jury held that the engroes Manning and Chisholm and John Williams, the plantation owner, were responsible.

The verdict for No. 6, Charley Chisholm, read: "We, the jury find that Charley Ghisholm met his death at the hands of Clyde Manning and John S. Williams."

March 1 two Department of Justice agents, A. J. Wisner and E. S. Chastain, came to Jasper county to investigate alleged peonage practices

Easter Celebrations

Interesting Program Given by Three Sunday Schools Yesterday

One of the prettiest services of the Easter season in Alexandria was the Easter festival of St. Paul's Sunday School yesterday afternoon at 4:30. The school assembled 150 strong in the Sunday School room in the Norton Memorial and marched into the church, which was already well filled with friends and relatives

The beautiful carols were well sung by the children and then 35 children were presented with prizes for perfect attendance for the year. The Easter offering was nearly $153 00, and the total offering for the year over $150.00. The most unique part of the program was the presentation of awards for perfect attendances beyond one year.

These awards astounded the audience as it is probable that the record attendances for the state and perhaps for the whole country are held in the St. Paul's Sunday School. The awards were for perfect attendance without the loss of a single Sunday and were presented as follows: Mary Travers, 7 years; William Travers, 9 years; Julian Wood, 9 years; Neal Bettis, 11 years; Marshall Travers, 11 years; Katie Robey, 12 years; and Chris. Gill, 13 years.

The superintendent of St. Paul's Sunday School is James S. Smyth and he is assisted by a thoroughly trained and remarkably devoted corps of teachers.

Grace Episcopal Church Sunday School held its annual Easter celebration yesterday afternoon which was attended by a large gathering of Sunday School scholars. An interesting Easter program was rendered and awards were made. The Easter offering amounted to $132.

The annual Easter celebration of Christ Episcopal Church Sunday School was held yesterday afternoon and attended by about 200 children. An interesting program was given. Announcement was made that the year's collection in the Sunday School amounted to $506.90 and the collection in the Sunday School during Lent amounted to $156.

Soviet Wants Upper Hand in Politics But Admits Immediate Need For Effort by all Classes

Helsingfors, March 28.—The Moscow and Petrograd Bolshevik newspapers of March 22 and 24, which were received here yesterday, paint in official announcements a vivid picture of what appears to be a sweeping attempt to conciliate the opponents of the Soviets without the latter surrendering political control. A part of the apparent effort comprises an appeal by the Soviet Government to Russian refugees abroad, in the course of which this passage occurs.

Crap Game Raided

Eight Captured—Gun Toters And Speeders In Net

"Come seben some eleben" was what the police heard coming from an unoccupied house at the extreme end of North Washington street Saturday night. They made a speedy investigation to determine what was the acuse of such uncanny sounds at the midnight hour. Eight colored men engaged in a crap game it was ascertained, upon forcing entrance was the cause of the noise.

In addition to gathering in the men the police also captured one razor and one pistol and took charge of the eight men, seven of whom forfeited collateral in the sum of $10 each in the police court today and the eighth man giving the name of Snap Smith was held and he was fined $25. Smith admitted to Justice Snow that he had been living in the house, although he denied ownership of the pistol or razor. The raid was made by Police Sergeant Campbell and Policemen Snellings and Cline.

When a colored man giving the name of James Proctor was intercepted yesterday by Policemen Magner and Durrer it was found he had a small pistol in his possession. The prisoner told the court today that he found it in a pile of trash at Camp Humphreys yesterday. His find cost him $25.

Tony Pulzone, charged by Policeman Durrer with exceeding the speed limit, denied that he was doing anything like that whole operating a motorcycle and he was acquitted.

Two other non residents charged with speeding, arrested by Policemen Durrer and Lawrence Padgett, forfeited collateral.

A Statement

By Howard W. Smith.

I personally wrote the editorial which appeared in the Alexandria Gazette in its issue of Saturday, March 26th,

In that editorial I stated that the false alarm of fire on Friday evening was turned in from the Reliance Engine House, and that the alarm was for the foot of King Street. I made that statement based upon a personal interview at Police Headquarters immediately after the occurrence, and believed the statement to be correct. I am informed by reliable persons that the alarm was not turned in from the Reliance Engine House, and therefore, in fairness and at the request of a delegation from that Company desire to retract that statement.

The balance of that editorial stands as written; we have no apologies to make therefore, and we again urge the authorities of this city to enforce proper regulations for speed of fire apparatus and private vehicles. We take this occasion to further urge the City Council to conduct a rigid investigation into the subject of false alarms of fire, and in aid of that cause we are today offering a reward of one hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who turned in the false alarm on last Friday night.

There are six alarm stations; one at Police Headquarters; one at each of the three engine houses; one at each the residence and office of the chief of the fire department I was informed by the delegation which called upon me to protest against the editorial that the alarm could have been turned in by either one of these six stations, or by someone "cutting in" on the wires from the outside.

A delegation from the fire department called on me this morning, headed by Chief Ogden, to complain of the editorial in question. Chief Ogden was particularly frank and bitter in his criticism of me for the publication of the article. I desire to state that Mr. Ogden was in the Gazette office when I brought the editorial in, on Saturday morning for publication. It was my intention to show him the article and I spoke to him on the subject, telling him that we were commenting editorially and asked him what he had to say about it. He replied that the paper would do him a favor if we would make our editorial as strong as possible; that we could not make it too strong to suit him Mr. Ogden, however, did not see the editorial before publication.

I stated to Mr. Ogden that if any injustice had been done to anyone our columns are open, and free, and we will be glad to publish any communication from Chief Ogden or any other person pertaining to the subject.

Conference Year

M. E. Church South Has 1071 Members With 1067 in Sunday School

Yesterday marked the close of the year in the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and on Wednesday, April 6th, Rev. E. V. Regester, D. D. will leave for conference which will convene at Roanoke on Thursday, April 7th.

At both the morning and evening services yesterday, the choir under the direction of Mr. Kenneth W. Ogden, with Mrs. George E. Warfield as organist, gave an elaborate musical program which was well rendered to congregations that filled the edifice.

Eight new members were received into full membership, making one hundred and forty four new members received during the conference year. The present membership is 1071 with 1067 in the Sunday School Over five hundred were present yesterday in the school.

The year has been one of wonderful prosperity in all departments of teh church and the membership is united in the desire that the present pastor shall be returned for another year.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church today elected the following vestrymen to serve for the year:

Fire Chief Resigns

K. W. Ogden Quits As Department Head—Council To Elect Successor

Fire Chief Kenneth W. Ogden today tendered his resignation as chief of the fire department to Mayor J. M. Duncan. The mayor stated that he expects to present the resignation of Chief Ogden to the city council at its next meeting. He, however, added he had not accepted it and said that Chief Ogden will continue to act till his successor is chosen by the city council.

The Alexandria Gazette will pay a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the party who turned in the false alarm of fire Friday night.

A certified check for the foregoing amount has this day been placed in the hands of Chief of Police C. T. Goods. This offer holds good for thirty days.

A Great Demonstration

Meeting at the First Baptist Church Reaches High Tide—Preacher Asked to Remain Longer

The meetings in progress at the First Baptist Church reached a climax in the service yesterday. In the Sunday School a large number came to the front to take Rev. Mr. Cole's hand, it was decision day. At the morning service he preached upon the "Resurrection" before a large congregation and brought in bol drelief Thomas the man who doubted the Resurrection. The appeal to enter into the resurrection life with Christ was most impressive and a number came forward. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Cole was invited to make an address at the Easter Festival in Christ Church. The subject at the B. Y. P. U. exercises at 7 o'clock was R. J. Willingham of the Foreign Mission Board, and there too Mr. Cole made some remarks emphasizing the importance of young Christians training for service. At the evening service a great crowd gathered to hear the evangelist, which overflowed into the galleries.

He brought a unique message upon the gates of Heaven and other manifestations were made. It was felt that the meeting must not close and by a large vote the congregation asked that the services be continued till Tuesday night. It is expected that a large congregation will assemble tonight.

Welfare Problems

Salvation Army and Local Advisory Board to Co-operate

The Salvation Army is one organization that evidently rose Phoenix-like to greater things out of the world war. It is the one organization that all the boys came home praising. It now organizes for greater things, the old drum on the street corner is enlarged to a new program and still larger service is the motto.

All over the country advisory boards are being formed of the leading citizens, men who represent the best civic and community interests without reference to denominational or religious affiliations. There are at present time over fifteen thousand advisory boards of the Salvation Army in the U. S.

The members of these boards are accredited representatives of the Salvation Army and the citizens of their communities, representing both in the home service program of practical solution of aggravated welfare problems occuring in their communities and seldom understood by the untrained mind in scientific treatmen of such cases.

Through these boards the sixteen major activities of the army are placed at the disposal of any citizen in need of using any of the following institutions: The Maternity Hospital, Rescue Homes for Girls, Working Men's Hotels, Young Women's Boarding Homes, Missing Friends Bureau, Anti-Suicide Bureau. Industrial Homes, an institution which reduces the population of the alms houses, and the Free Employment Bureaus.

The program is unique, in that the Salvation Army service in no way interferes with the working of any other organizations for relief, it being the outgrowth of the 48 years of service to suffering humanity in this country and attending to the emergency cases that the communities are still unable to solve to their satisfaction.

Leading citizens in Alexandria are expressive of appreciation that such service can be had and will form themselves into a Salvation Army Board to support and further the movement here.

In the interest of this work, Mrs. Mary T. Wishman, field director, is in the Alexandria mapping out preliminary plans.

PROBE BY HARDING FOR SOLDIER RELIEF

He Will Appoint Special Committee to Make Inquiry

FINDING TO CONGRESS

Vocational Board Will Examine Into System of Allowances—Vocational Board Spending $150,000,000 Yearly

Washington, March 28.—As the outcome of a White House conference with former service men yesterday President Harding will within the next two or three days appoint a special commission for a sweeping investigation into the present treatment of disabled veterans of the World War and what is believed by the Administration to be a failure of the Government services for their aid properly to handle rehabilitation work

The conference was attended by Charles G. Dawes, formerly brigadier-general in charge of army purchasing in France; Col. F. W. Galbraith, commander of the American Legion; Thomas W. Miller, Alien Property Custodian, formerly a colonel in the American Expeditionary Forces, and Assistant Secretary Theodore Roosevelt, of the Navy Department. With President Harding during the meeting was Brigadier-General Sawyer, his physician, who has charge of the President's efforts to co-ordinate public health and welfare work. Later these five went over the situation with General Pershing at his home here.

The purpose of the inquiry decided upon will be to see if the service of the Federal Board for Vocational Training and the Bureau of War Risks has broken down in any respect and where the weaknesses have been. It is also the intention to go into the question of abuses to disabled veterans if evidences of unfair treatment develop during the inquiry.

At the White House it was announced that the investigation will be conducted in order that the whole situation may be clearly and frankly pictured to Congress and the country. The investigation may develop increased sentiment for a consolidation of the work of the War Risk Bureau, the Board of Vocational Education and the Public Health Service, as it relates to disabled service men. This is already favored by many members of Congress who have intended to push a bill preventing such a consolidation when the special session meets.

There was no indication at the White House as to who will compose the committee of inquiry. It is the belief, however, that the work will be headed by General Dawes, who gained favor with service men through his testimony before the subcommittee of the House which attempted to quiz him on war expenditures in France. Dr. Sawyer, who has become a liaison officer for the Administration in matters relating to the public health and the care of disabled soldiers, will probably be a member of the committee.

It is understood that President Harding will give the matter of soldier relief attention in his message to Congress, but he will probably not make concrete recommendation until the investigation committee has completed its work, which, in view of what is considered the pressing nature of the question, will probably be as soon as possible with justice to the subject.

Thorough investigation of the entire system of vocational training allowences to disabled war veterans also is to be made by the Vocational Training Board. Pending the "exhaustive inquiry and study" proposed Secretary Wallace, of the Department of Agriculture, a member of the board, in a statement last night indicated that the board's ruling fixing a maximum of $2,200 annually on payments to men receiving vocational training would stand. This ruling is under fire from the American Legion and other veteran organizations.

Secretary Wallace explained that the $2,200 limit ruling affects about one hundred or more men in Government departments who, with vocational training allowances, receive up to $4,000 a year from the Govern-

Ballots and Bullets. Rarely is the great difference in the efficacy of ballots and bullets better illustrated than in the sharply contrasting news dispatches of the moment from the domains which but lately comprised the Imperial German Government. At the very hour when the ballots were still being counted registering distinct victory for Germany in the Silesian plebiscite, bands of revolutionists in the industrial regions of what is now the German Republic were storming their way with a hail of bullets to what they fancy is power and plenty through industrial communism.

The orderly partition of Silesia, with its millions of diverse peoples, its vast mineral wealth and material resources, is accomplished by the simple procession of more than a million people to the ballot box. The industrial rehabilitation of Germany is not only not accomplished but made infinitely more difficult by the resort of large numbers of deluded communists to bullets and blood.

The ballot is the symbol of democracy, particularly of that democracy which the fathers of this Republic set up on a new continent nearly a century and a half ago. The bullet is the symbol of anarchy, particularly of that anarchy which is eating at the vitals of decent government and happiness in Europe and other parts of the world to-day. Americans will do well to ponder, when injustices and inequalities that need remedying seem to appear, that the great constructive advances in any community, in any state, among any people, come through the orderly processes of the ballot, the court and the constitution, not through the wild, impassioned whirlpool of bullets.

Mr. Hays' Promise. Postmaster General Hays has promised a committee of the American Legion that he will give preference wherever possible to veterans of the war and that he will see to it that the law is enforced requiring time spent in the military service by postal employes to be credited on their records. The committee laid before him specific instances in which it was charged that former service men had been discriminated against and the Postmaster General agreed to have them investigated and justice done.

This is a fair promise from Mr. Hays and the country will watch with interest for its performance. The public will watch, for instance, for indications whether it is to be fulfilled in one state and ignored in another or whether it is to be applied fairly and without prejudice throughout the nation. It could be made a very formidable political weapon if the Postmaster General were disposed to use it as such.

Doubtless the sentiment of the country is in favor of giving all reasonable advantages to the men who saw active service in the late war and the legal provision that they shall have credit for the time they spent in uniform is a just one. But the country will insist that in the administration of this law and the operation of the policy of preference, all sections shall be treated alike without playing politics. Mr Hays will be accorded due credit for his sentiments, but he will be under a close scrutiny.

The Russian Reply. Today's dispatches from Reval, Esthonia, report that Maxim Litvinoff, Chief of the Soviet Delegations Abroad, has replied to the late note of this Government with reference to trade between the United States and Russia, flatly denying that Soviet Russia has nothing worth while to export, calling attention to specific quantities of supplies ready and being made ready for exportation and again putting the question of trade with Russia on purely commercial terms up to the United States Government.

Perhaps that part of the new Russian note which will prove to be the most interesting is Litvinoff's declaration that Russia stands ready to import from this country large supplies of agricultural, electrical and rail road materials, tools of all kind, chemicals, food and fruits.

There are undoubtedly two opinions in this country as to the desirability of trading with Soviet Russia. The Wilson Administration maintained that the resumption of trade with Soviet Russia would necessarily carry with it political recognition of the Soviet Republic, something which this Government had steadfastly refused to be a party to ever since the leaders of the present Russian regime sold out to the Germans while our troops were taking their places in the battle lines of Flanders. As soon as the Harding Administration came in, the Soviet leaders, having been told by Republican speakers during the campaign that the entire Wilson foreign policy was to be reversed, immediately dispatched a note to this Government offering to resume trade relations with the United States on a purely business basis. The new Secretary of State, Mr. Hughes, very promptly informed them in reply that since Soviet Russia had little or nothing with which to trade, a resumption of trade relations would be a political rather than a business deal with the Soviet Republic and that this country would enter into no political bargain with Sovietism at this time.

The agitation for trade with Russia is undoubtedly a farce. What the Soviet leaders want and what their friends in this country want is a recognition of the Russian Soviet Government. In refusing this recognition the new Administration undoubtedly has behind it not only the precedent and principle of the preceding Administration but the sound common sense and support of a large majority of Americans.

A Civil War Veteran, W. V. Meadows of Lanett, Ala., has just coughed up a bullet which hit him in the eye during the Battle of Vicksburg July 1, 1863. To think of carrying a slug of lead that weighs an ounce around in the head for fifty eigh years! No doubt some of us know several people who if they had an ounce in their heads would walk upside down.

Wonder how Brigadier General Sawyer, the new White House doctor, likes his new Army suit with all its bright stars and gilded paulets. To be a country doctor one day and a general the next sounds like a paragraph from the Arabian Nights and our new general may be pardoned if he looks at himself several times a day in the glass until the novelty has worn off.

SPORTS

One of the most spectacular and stirring exhibition of athletics ever staged in Alexandria will be held Wednesday night at the Opera House under the auspices of the Dreadnaught Athletic Club. Two wrestling matches, each representative of local talent, is on the bill and the home boys are in trim for the event Thirty rounds of exhibition boxing that promises some real "tickling" is carded in five bouts, and according to advance chatter—"well, you'll just like it."

Prof. Whipp who has whipped them all in his day, will be on hand with some lightning stuff. He is the guy that knocked it out of Kelly and was retired from the ring.

The Cardinal Athletic Club baseball team will play the George Washington University representatives on the Polo Field, near the Highway Bridge, Washington, Saturday, April 2, at 3 o'clock p. m.

While the university team will be a strong combination the Cardinals will make their rivals go the limit to beat them. Some high-class baseball players, will be seen in the Cardinals lineup during the season, and they are sure to improve greatly after a few practice drills. The names of the new men will not be published until they have played in games, and it will be left to the public to judge their merits. If any player fails to make good another will be tried, and such trials continue until the Cardinals have a well-working baseball machine that will be able to tackle any class A baseball nine hereabouts. There are numerous former college stars known to the officers of the Cardinals who would like to play here just to keep themselves in trim, and Manager Crump will use some of the lads when possile to do so. Games have already been arranged with many of the best baseball teams of Washington and nearby places. Only first-class teams will be booked for games. While the Cardinals do not like to be defeated, nevertheless it is more honorable to be beaten by a strong team than it is to conquer a weak one.

It has always been the purpose of the officials of the Cardinals to entertain the baseball followers of Alexandria with good games and the coming season, no doubt, will be a banner one. If the baseball fans give the Cardinals liberal financial support when the hat is passed around to pay the necessary expenses of games, everything will be done to give them the best sandlot baseball games to be witnessed anywhere. Those who donate a silver offering are sure to receive many pleasant hours of amusement in return for their generosity.

Mrs. Harding's Easter Hat is of Black Straw

Washington, March 28.—Mrs. Warren G. Harding's Easter hat was of black straw, trimmed with aigrettes.

She wore it when she went to church with President Harding. The church was Calvary Baptist. Hundreds gathered about the doors to catch a glimpse of the President and his wife.

The President wore a high silk hat, and a morning suit.

Mrs. Harding's gown was blue.

Both smiled and bowed to the crowd and the President waved his hand; as the ubiquitious movie men started work.

The Reverend Stanley J. Durkee president of Howard University, preached. The President and his wife joined in the singing.

"Apples Smothered to Death" Cure Discovered

Washington, March 28.—Untold millions of apples have "smothered" to death, the Department of Agriculture announced yesterday in a bulletin announcing discovery of a fresh-air cure—for the raw fruit before it reaches the pie stage. "Apples to be made comfortable" is the title of the government bulletin, urging apple hoarders to "keep your apples cool and then stand back and let them breathe."

"It is established that apples meet an untimely death by smothering," the Federal experts declared.

Mrs. Robert O. Reynolds

"I have actually gained twenty-five pounds and I just think Tanlac is the grandest medicine in the world," said Mrs. Robert O. Reynolds, 127 North Denver Street, Kansas City, Mo.

"For ten long years I suffered from a very bad form of rheumatism, stomach and nervous troubles. My appetite was very poor. What little I did eat soured on my stomach and I suffered the most severe pains in my back, hips and shoulders. My rheumatism was so bad that I could not raise my hands to comb my hair and my arms hurt me to my finger tips. I became so weak and run down that I lost all my energy and life had become almost a burden. I tried many things but nothing helped me.

"I had only taken my first bottle of Tanlac when I noticed my appetite was improving and I could sleep better at night. I have taken three bottles and the way it has helped me and built me up is really astonishing. I can eat anything and everything without the slightest disagreeable after-effects. I sleep just fine at night and am in better health than I have been for years. I am glad to give this statement, hoping that any who are suffering as I did may experience the same wonderful results, which I believe they will if they give Tanlac a fair trial."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, Jr., King and Pitt Sts.

Easter Sunday

Church Services Well Attended—Kiddies Have Outing Today

The perdictions of the weather man for Easter Sunday went to smash. There was no sign of rain and the women dressed in their Easter finery were not the least hampered. It was more like a mid summer day. Hundreds of visitors were in the city and a large number of visiting automobilists. The services in all of the churches were attended by large congregations and sermons appropriate to the observance of the day were delivered by the pastors.

This afternoon hundreds of youngsters are enjoying egg rolling at George Washington Park. Many also went to the White Lot in Washington and some to nearby points in the country, and as the Gazette goes to press it looks as if rain will spoil the picnic of the little folks before sundown.

Officers Take Huge Still In Nelson County Raid

Lynchburg, Va., March 28.—Deputy Marshal E. L. Chappelle and Deputy Collector C. M. Campbell late Friday, in Nelson County, raided and destroyed a large illicit still, which had a capacity of 400 gallons. A barrel of finished brandy was poured out and 250 gallons of "singlings" were destroyed. Eleven men were at work at the still when the revenue men approached, but Deputy Collector Campbell accidentally fell into the creek by which the outfit was located. This aroused the moonshiners, who ran to the cover of the mountains. Four of the men are said to have been recognized and later will be arrested.

Charge Judge Prejudiced In Seizure of Pullman

Miami, Fla., March 28.—Indefinite postponement of the hearing involving the seizure of the $100,000 private pullman car owned by Harry St. Francis Black, New York millionaire, for alleged violation of the State prohibition act, has resulted through the filing yesterday of an affidavit charging Judge H. P. Branning, before whom the case was to have come up, with being prejudiced.

Under a recent ruling by the State Supreme Court, such an affidavit disqualifies a judge, irrespective of the truth or falseness of the charge. Sixty cases of liquor were found aboard Black's car when it was raided here March 17.

WIDOW POISONED CHILDREN, WANTED TO REWED, CHARGE

Pikesville, Ky., March 28.—Mrs. William Mullins widow since last fall, is under arrest here on a charge of having poisoned her two children so that she might be married again. Officers charge that Mrs. Mullins, who had four children, sought to free herself in order that she might be married to a widower, who also had children.

The prospective bridegroom, it is alleged, contended that their children would not get along. Fearing that her contemplated marriage would be interferred with, the widow, it is charged, administered poison to her children in capsule form.

The children, alleged to have been murdered by Mrs. Mullins were a daughter, 15 years old, and a child 3 years old. After their deaths, which took place a few days apart, officials charge that they found poison in capusles in Mrs. Mullins' home.

Mrs. Mullins will plead insanity, attorneys said yesterday.

TOKYO IMPERILED BY 12 1-2 MILLION BLAZE

Tokyo, March 28.—The whole city of Tokyo was imperiled last night by the greatest fire with which it has been visited in a decade. The conflagration destroyed 1,000 houses in the Hatsuya district, in the north western part of the city, involving a loss estimated at 25,000,000 yen (normally about $12,500,000), thousands of persons were made homeless, and 133 persons were injured. The burned buildings included 3 hospitals, a bank and several large business houses.

For four hours during the night a violent, biting, wind drove the flames in the direction of the heart of the city, causing a panic among the population over a wide area. Four thousand troops aided the firemen in combating the blaze, but it was only when the force of the wind let down notably that their efforts to control the fire were rewarded with success

Scenes of terror were witnessed in many sections as the course of the flames threatened widespread destruction. The streets were choked with masses of despairing refugees from the districts already stricken, accompanied by carts loaded with furniture, the confusion being added to by the flocking in of sightseers from other sections. Many of the half frozen fugitives fleeing from the flames bore infants strapped to their backs, Mounted police had great difficulty in restraining incipient panics.

on the Williams plantation. They called on Williams, among others, but it is said that Williams gave a satisfactory explanation of his patrons.

At that time Williams is said to have had only 12 negroes. The special agents went to the farm of Hulon Williams, a son of John Williams, where they are said to have seen three or four negroes at work and Leroy Williams, a son, is said to have been guarding the negroes with a gun.

The Williamses are said to have resented the visit of the Government's agents and after agents left the premises Williams is said to have become apprehensive of the results. The three sons of Williams were at that time said to have been sent away from the plantation. These sons are Hulon, Leroy and Marvin. They were gone for three weeks.

It was after they left, it is alleged, that the bodies were disposed of. The sons have not been arrested. Warrants for the arrests were returned to the Governor today, as county officials said there was no information connecting them with the case.

Claims Telephone Was Invented by Bacon Over 600 Years Ago

New York, March 28.—The world of science would be three centuries ahead if the discoveries of Roger Bacon, thirteenth century scientist and writer, could have been made public, was the statement yesterday of Wilfred M. Voynich, bibliographer and medievalist, who announced Friday that Bacon was familiar with the use of the microscope.

In discussing the deciphering of a Bacon manuscript, the text of which will be told in part at a meeting of the College of Physicians in Philadelphia next month, Dr. Voynich declared Bacon must have been far ahead of his time in knowledge of medicine, micro-organism, possibly steam and electricity and with the telescope and microscope.

Dr. Voynch said his theory of the Baconian investigations was that the world of his time was not ready for the startling announcements he could have made, and that, fearing further persecution after having been imprisoned for sorcery, Bacon embalmed his discoveries in the cipher manuscript which is only now being worked out.

Dr. Voynich would not say how he obtained the manuscript which is being interpreted by Dr. William Romaine Newbold, of Philadelphia, declaring that information, together with the results of the decipherment so far, would be revealed in the April meeting. Dr. Newbold has as yet deciphered only a small portion of the writings, which he characterizes as 'encyclopedic," and the interpretations of which will fill 10 volumes, at least.

With the microscope, which he must have used, Dr. Voynich declared Bacon must have anticipated discoveries made during the last century by Lister and Pasteur and the knowledge of which would have been of the greatest importance to physicians.

Among other things credited to Bacon Dr. Voynich said, was a knowledge of the telephone, one of which he invented, various experiments with flying machines and the discovery or use of the magnet.

The deciphering of the rest of the manuscript, a work of years, is expected to reveal those secrets.

RECORD CROWD ATTENDS SHORE'S EASTER PARADE

Atlantic City, March 28.—Easter Sunday of 1921 is an excellent date to mark the firmer establishment of Atlantic City as America's pleasure capital and its entrance into the select company of the great capitals of the world.

A huge artistic sign, newly placed over the portal of the almost completed Ritz down Chelsea way, proclaims this queen of resorts a world capital and lists it with London, Madrid, Paris, Rome, Evian les Bains, Mentone, New York, Philadelphia and Buenos Aires.

A throng of visitors officially estimated by Mayor Bader and his aides as exceeding 250,000 yesterday gave to the famous Boardwalk and Atlantic City generally the appearance of the gayest, most colorful capital in the world.

Unquestionably it was a record breaking crowd. Eighteen thousand automobiles had been checked up in the garages and in the overflow along the curbs last night. Fifteen thousand more rolled into town today. Estimating four persons to each car, the police count shows that 132,000 came by motor within the last 36 hours. Adding to this number the crowds arriving by train and those which came before Saturday, they find a total of 250,000 or more who came to open the Shore's spring season with the traditional Easter parade.

Dry Agent Steps on Cat's Tail; Finds Hidden Booze

New York, March 28.—A cat in search of a lost chord yesterday led to seizure of 36 bottles of whisky inside a piano, aboard the Trinidad liner Mayaro.

A prohibition inspector accidentally stepped on pussy's tail. Puss howled and jumped from the deck through a port hole into a cabin, the top of an upright piano, had the top been closed.

But it wasn't and amid a bit of feline jazz, the dry agents caught the jangle of glass. Discovery of the whisky followed.

INLAYS IN TEETH

By Rea Proctor McGee, M. D., D. D. S. Editor Oral Hygiene

An inlay is a filling that is made outside of the mouth and when finished is fastened in the tooth cavity with a dental cement. The making of inlays is a very ancient process that was a lost art for many centuries. The Aztecs of old Mexico used a green stone inlay in their teeth. The green stone was not used to stop cavities as we use inlays, but was purely decorative. The Aztec nobility had fanciful designs cut in their front teeth probably tribal marks on the order of our coat-of-arms, then the green stone was cleverly cut to fit the cavity and cemented with a very durable transparent cement. The durability of these prehistoric inlays is proved by the fact that there are in existence a number of Aztec skulls with the green stone still firmly in place.

Inlays of porcelain were the first to be made in modern times. Porcelain was used because it can be made to closely approximate the color and characteristics of the natural teeth. The process of making a porcelain inlay is very difficult but the result is so satisfactory that many are made for fillings where gold would be objectionable.

The gold inlay is now very widely used. There are many ways to make them but the object is the same; that is, to perfectly fill the cavity, to restore the original contour, and to be durable. All of these things a gold inlay does. The miniature casting that is required to make a gold inlay is an art of modern times. Gold inlays are made with remarkable accuracy, and as they are made outside of the mouth, they are much less painful than gold fillings that must be malleted into the tooth. Whether a good gold inlay is better for the tooth than a gold filling that is also good is not yet decided. I would say that either one is all right.

Many Ways to Use Peanuts

Peanuts are a drug on the market just now. That's because they are not eaten largely in cold weather, but with the coming of the robin, which is a haribnger of spring, circuses and the opening of summer resorts, peanut shippers look for increased consumption, which may mean higher prices. In round figures 900,000,000 lbs of peanuts are grown in the United States ever year and 100,000,000 pounds were imported from Asia last year. About 50,000,000 pounds of roasted peanuts are consumed annually, say marketing experts of the Bureau of markets, United States Department of Agriculture.

Few of the fond papas and mammas who buy Johnnie or Mary a bag of peanuts at the circus know that more than 100 different methods of utilizing peanuts, including the making of fancy dyes and wood stains, peanuts milk, coffee, and ice cream, have been devised, although few of these products are sold commercially But peanut oil, peanut candy, peanut butter, salted peanuts, peanut cookies, roasted peanuts, and peanuts in a number of other forms run up the annual American per capita consumption to 3 1-2 pounds. very time certain soaps are used the consumer is partaking of his 3 1-2 pounds.

Fully half of the peanuts grown in the Southern States are fed to hogs. Large quantities of peanuts are exported also, 1,074,007 pounds having gone out of the country during the month of January alone. Of this quantity 78 per cent went to Canada, where the peanuts enjoys copopularity with the clove. Cuba took 14 per cent, Jamaica 2 per cent, and Bermuda 1 per cent.

ment. It was this situation that the former board dealt with in its order, made effective April 1.

There are now 74,147 men receiving vocational allowances, as against 46,897 six months ago, Secretary Wallace said.

"The Vocational Board," Mr. Wallace stated, "is now expending $150,000,000 annually "with the apparent certainty that this sum will go into $200,000,000 in the next fiscal year."

Prior to his conference today, the President and Mrs. Harding, accompanied by Mr. Dawes, attended the morning service at Calvary Baptist Church. During the afternoon Mr. Harding strolled through the White House grounds with his guests and later went auto riding with Mrs. Harding.

Marshal Fayolle Says Germany Is Preparing For War of Revenge

Paris, March 28.—Marshall Fayolle, who commanded the French group of armies at the battle of the Somme and later commanded French divisions on the Italian front, declared yesterday that Germany was earnestly preparing for a new war and, that unless the Allies took firm action at once, never would carry out the Versailles Treaty.

"The Germans are pursuing military preparations in an underhanded manner," the French warrior declared, "and the Allies must act with determination now, for later Germany will be so strong that we will be unable to impose our will upon her.

"The Germans are not changed by wars. Some day one of the Hohenzollerns will return to Berlin. Everything seems bent now toward a crisis."

Preacher, Former Devil Dog, Fells Highway With Revolver

Pittsburgh, March 28.—Facing a revolver pointing at his breast, the Rev. Raymond H. Gordon, pastor of a local Presbyterian Church, ignored the command of two highwaymen on a lonely road last night to hold up his hands. Instead he shot a stiff right hook to the jaw of the revolver holder, dropping the latter in his tracks. Then he walked on, unmolested by the second highwayman.

The Rev. Mr. Gordon was attending the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary when America entered the war. He enlisted in the Marine Corps, and as a private in the Fifth Regiment of Marines won two medals for bravery at Beleau Wood and the Champagne drive. He was later wounded and promoted to second lieutenant.

Governor Will Discuss Need of Road Repairing

The need of improving the Georgetown-Leesburg Turnpike, from Washington to the Valley of Virginia, will be discussed by Governor Westmoreland Davis before a joint meeting of business men of the northern part of the State and Washington, according to a letter received by Herman E. Gasch, of Washington, one of the leaders in the movement to improve the highway.

Governor Davis also indicated that he would present the matter in Washington at the proper time.

This road, when completed, will give a direct motor route from Washington to the Valley, and will form one of the most important links in the contemplated system of State highways.

INSECTICIDE MISTAKEN FOR WHISKY MAY KILL

Scranton, Pa., March 28.—Drinking half a pint of "dead shot," an insecticide, in the belief that it was whisky, will probably cost Frank Rice, aged 44 years, his life. He is in the State Hospital and not expected to live.

Mrs. Rice, it is alleged, had placed the insecticide, which was in a flask, on a shelf where her husband was in the habit of keeping a half pint when he could get it. Rice coming home late and finding the flask drained the contents.

BOLSHEVIKI APPEAL TO RESCUE RUSSIA

Russia in her reconstruction work must rely not only upon her workingmen, but also upon the peasants and her intellectuals. Therefore her new international relations oblige Russia to alter her former stand regarding emigrants. The question of the moment is to utilize the forces of these Russian refugees abroad, as their aid is most important in the work of reconstruction."

A neditorial in the "Pravda," of Moscow, bemoans the failure of the government to care properly for the intellectuals at home, and it promises that they will have better treatment and that good resolutions have been taken as to their future.

It is, however, officially denied that Premier Lenine had conferred with the leaders of the Menshevik and Social Democrats with a view to the formation of a coalition government, as had been reported.

The Bolshevik newspapers differ as to the reports of a counter revolutionary movement in Petrograd while not a word had been published by the Soviet press up to March 24 regarding the offer to trade with the United States. The trade agreement with Great Britain was not over enthusiastically commented upon. The Krasnya Gazeta, for instance, quotes Leonid Krassin as saying the British agreement was unsatisfactory, although it was a gain for Bolshevism.

The Bolsheviki Minister to Finland has announced here the ratification of the Soviet treaties with Turkey and Persia and the Bokhara Government, these completing the peace making process and making Soviet Russia officially at peace with every border state.

It is announced that a Turkish delegation, including Yusef Kemal, has arrived in Petrograd.

The Finnish Government, says the Helsingin Sanomat, of Helsinki, has informed the Soviet Ministry that trade relations between Finland and Russia can begin only when the first trainload of repatriated Finns passes across the frontier from Russia.

Colonel Edward W. Ryan, American Red Cross Commissioner to the Baltic states, arrived in Helsingfors yesterday and had a conference with the Finnish Foreign Minister. He will proceed hence to the camps where the refugees who crossed the border from Kronstadt at the time of the fall of that fortress to the Bolsheviki are gathered.

25 PICTURE BRIDES WILL WED TODAY

Gloucester, N. J., March 28.—There are 25 young women in the detention house of the Bureau of Immigration who expect to be brides Monday or Tuesday. They arrived on the steamships Regina D'Italia and San Rossore, from Italy and while some of the husband to be were on hand, it was decided that the marriages could not take place until Monday.

Several others who are to be married were released in the custody of woman relatives who will care for them until the marriage takes place All of the women who are to be married are members of the Catholic faith and they could not get married on Friday or Saturday because they were holy days. Many of the grooms visited the detention house yesterday and today and brought candy and other delicacies to the women. Most of the women are picture brides and they are anxious for their release because they were quarantined at Marcus Hook for 12 days.

European Dancing Masters to Ban American Steps

Paris, March 28.—A general revision of the present dances, looking to the elimination of the shimmy, the fox trot and the one step, is on the program for consideration by the Congress of the Dancing Professors of France, England, Belgium, Holland and Switzerland, which opened its session in the Paris Academy of Dancing today. A majority of the delegates, it is said, are advocating a return to the waltz.

The Paris press has greeted the news of the prospective change with undisguised satisfaction.

MEMORIAL FOR BERT TAYLOR

Societies Crowd Blackstone Theatre In Chicago

Chicago, March 28.—Memorial services in honor of Bert Leston Taylor, "B. T. L." were held today at the Blackstone Theatre under the auspices of the Cliff Dwellers and other literary and artistic societies of which he had been a member.

Addresses were made by his intimate friends, and the Flonzaleys, of whose music he had always been very fond, rendered his favorite selections. The theatre was crowded to capacity and among the hundred who stood outside was Irvin Cobb, the humorist.

Condemned to Die Gives Advice to Youths

New Brunswick, N. J., March 28.—Bradley spelled in spots, but full of earnest advice, the moral lesson that George Washington Knight, the negro condemned to die May 5, just twenty days after he murdered Mrs. Edith Wilson, a young white woman, desires to transmit to other young men was given out at the jail here with Knight's request that it be published widely.

"Boys," Knight wrote, "If your mother tells you for your own good and you don't heed her, you will wish you had. If I had took heed to my mother, I wouldn't be here. But by roaming and foolishness, I threw my life away."

J. C. Davis Is Named Railroad Director

Washington, March 28.—John C. Davis, of Iowa, former general counsel of the Chicago Northwestern Railway, was appointed director-general of the railroad administration by President Harding today to succeed John Barton Payne, who has held the post during the past year, in addition to his duties as Secretary of the Interior.

Aged Louisiana Merchant Found Murdered In Store

Colfax, La., March 28.—John Tinglia, aged 60, a well known merchant of Colfax, was found dead in the rear of his store about noon yesterday, a load of buckshot having entered the right side of his head. His tongue and teeth were torn out by the shot which was fired at close range.

The body was discovered by a negro woman who was employed by the merchant to clean up his premises. When found it was in a kneeling position near a rear window of the store.

A number of tracks were found in the rear of the store and local officers are carefully guarding these pending the arrival of bloodhounds from Mississippi when it is hoped by local officials the dogs will be able to pick up the trail of the murderer.

Free Foot at Border

Benton, Tenn., March 28.—M. V. Davis, member of the Polk County Court; his brother, E. L. Davis, postmaster and prominent merchant of Conasauga; Bob and Ed McCamy charged with the killing of Deputy Sheriff Tucker Headrick during an affray over the transportation of liquor a few months ago, were acquitted by a jury here late last night following a trial lasting several days. The trouble occurred at a country dance, and evidence showed that Headrick was shot in the back while he had one of the McCamy boys under arrest.

Dancers to Replace New Jazz Steps

Budapest, March 28.—The one-step and jazz music have been banished from the dance halls of Hungary by decree of the Minister of Home Affairs, who characterized them as decadent and injurious to the younger generation. In their place the dancing masters have been officially requested to bring into vogue the old-fashioned dances, which had fallen into disuse.

It is understood in this connection that Monsignor Schioppa, the papal nuncio here, had made representations regarding the control of "immoral dances," considering their regulation as falling within ecclesiastical authority.

Daughter of English Earl To Become a Chorus Girl

New York, March 28.—The Honorable Sylvia Gough, heralded by her press agents as the daughter of an English earl and the daughter-in-law of Major-General Sir Hugh Sutle-Gough, has arrived in New York and will take her place in the chorus of "The Right Girl," a musical comedy now playing on Broadway, on Tuesday next, it was announced today.

Archibald Selwyn, who made the announcement, said that he met the woman of title on a recent visit to England. He heard that she and her husband Captain Wilfred Gough, of the Welsh Guards, had lost their fortunes during war, and he made her an offer to appear in the musical comedy.

AUSTRIAN PROFESSORS GET $14 MONTH PAY

New York, March 28.—Dr. Bernard Geiger, of the University of Vienna, who arrived yesterday on the Lapland from Antwerp, paints a gloomy picture of the life of a college professor in Austria. The average monthly salary of the professional toiler, he said, was $14.00 measured in American money, just about enough to buy a suit of clothes. One week's salary bought a pair of shoes. He said American institutions had made it possible by sending books, clothes and money to buy essentials for the foreign educational centres to continue.

Professor Geiger is an expert on philology and ethnology. He has published a work to prove that the East Indians or certain parts of them were identical with the Persians prior to 2000 B. C.

DYING SCIENTIST AVERS GOD STRUCK HIM DOWN

Paris, March 28.—"The hidden God who does not wish to give up his secrets strikes down men who seek to take them," said Dr. Adolphe Leray, chief of the X-Ray laboratory in the St. Antoine Hospital, shortly before he died yesterday at Enghien.

Dr. Leray was a victim of what he believed to have been a successful effort to find protection from the X-Rays, which have caused the slow death of many scientists.

Research in an effort to afford protection to others was begun by Dr. Leray after his hands had become affected through the making of 35,000 radiographs in war work. For this work he was decorated by the French Government with the Legion of Honor.

Several of his fingers were amputated during his research work, but he still persisted in it and told those who begged him to desist that it was the hidden God who desired to retain his secrets who struck down those who sought to unravel them.

WINTER RETURNS TO WEST ON HEELS OF TORNADO

Chicago, March 28.—Easter Sunday brought a return of winter to Nebraska with a fall of snow in some places. Wind, which reached almost tornado proportions, did considerable damage between Hastings and Trumbull, killing live stock and leveling telephone poles and demolishing outbuildings.

Damage caused by the tornado which swept a path 80 rods wide and 35 miles long through Nobles county, Minnesota, yesterday, was estimated yesterday at close to $200 000. The number of dead last night totaled two. Several persons were injured.

Fourteen persons were injured in Fonda, Iowa, by the tornado. The property damage was estimated at $100,000. No one was injured fatally. A train of box cars was blown 20 feet off a railroad siding.

Testimony For Defense Ends in Bigham Trial

Florence, S. C., March 28.—Today was a day of rest for all the principals in the trial of Edmund Bigham charged with the murder of his brother, Smiley Bigham, and four other members of the Bigham family, following the adjournment of court shortly before midnight last night in the midst of arguments.

All the testimony for the defense was concluded at last night's session, and Solicitor Gasque, for the prosecution, and G. T. McDonald, for the defense, had made their arguments before court adjourned for the night. Judge Memminger had announced he would adjourn the Georgetown term from day to day until the Bigham case is finished.
